Varun Academy of Skill Development

Checklist for Asking Programming Questions

You can use this checklist to draft a great programming question on community support portals like stack overflow. This checklist will help you to draft a well-structured question to be asked on Communities.

	Yes	NA
1. I searched for any existing solution but it's not available.	☐	☐
2. My question title is concise & summarizes specific problem.	☐	☐
3. I explained the problem I am trying to solve.	☐	☐
4. I have explained what difficulties I am facing.	☐	☐
5. I you briefed about what I tried and won't worked.	☐	☐
6. It is clear in my question that what has happened.	☐	☐
7. I mentioned clearly what was supposed to happen.	☐	☐
8. I have added code for others to reproduce the problem.	☐	☐
9. I have written minimal code for my problem.	☐	☐
10. I have provided all parts needed to reproduce problem.	☐	☐
11. I have verified or put verifiable code for the problem.	☐	☐
12. I have created the live example of the problem.	☐	☐
13. I have proof read my question for grammar etc.	☐	☐
14. I have included full error messages. (if any)	☐	☐
15. I have included the version, packages & dependencies.	☐	☐
16. I have included any screenshots wherever required.	☐	☐

YAY! You did it. Just go ahead and post your well asked great question. Wish you

All the Best. Happy Coding.

Source:
https://stackoverflow.com/help/how-to-ask https://codeblog.jonskeet.uk/2012/11/24/stack-overflow-question-checklist/